Forward Sling Mount

For Remington 870

The Forward Sling Mount is a sling attachment point for the Remington 870 series of shotguns which clamps onto the barrel and extended magazine tube. It can be configured for use with either Push-Button QD Sling Swivels or one-point clip-in style attachments such as the MS3 Paraclip™, the HK® hook, ITW™ MASH hook, and others.

Made from precision cast steel that is Melonite® treated for wear and corrosion resistance. Dedicated fit for the Remington 870 with extended mag tube.
